

Landscape of Emergency Aid Programs in Texas

Ginger L. Gossman, Ph.D.
Innovation and Policy Development
September 10, 2018

60x30TX

Texas Higher Education
Coordinating Board

Landscape Analysis Timeline

2016

- Borrowed landscape survey instrument from NASPA

2017

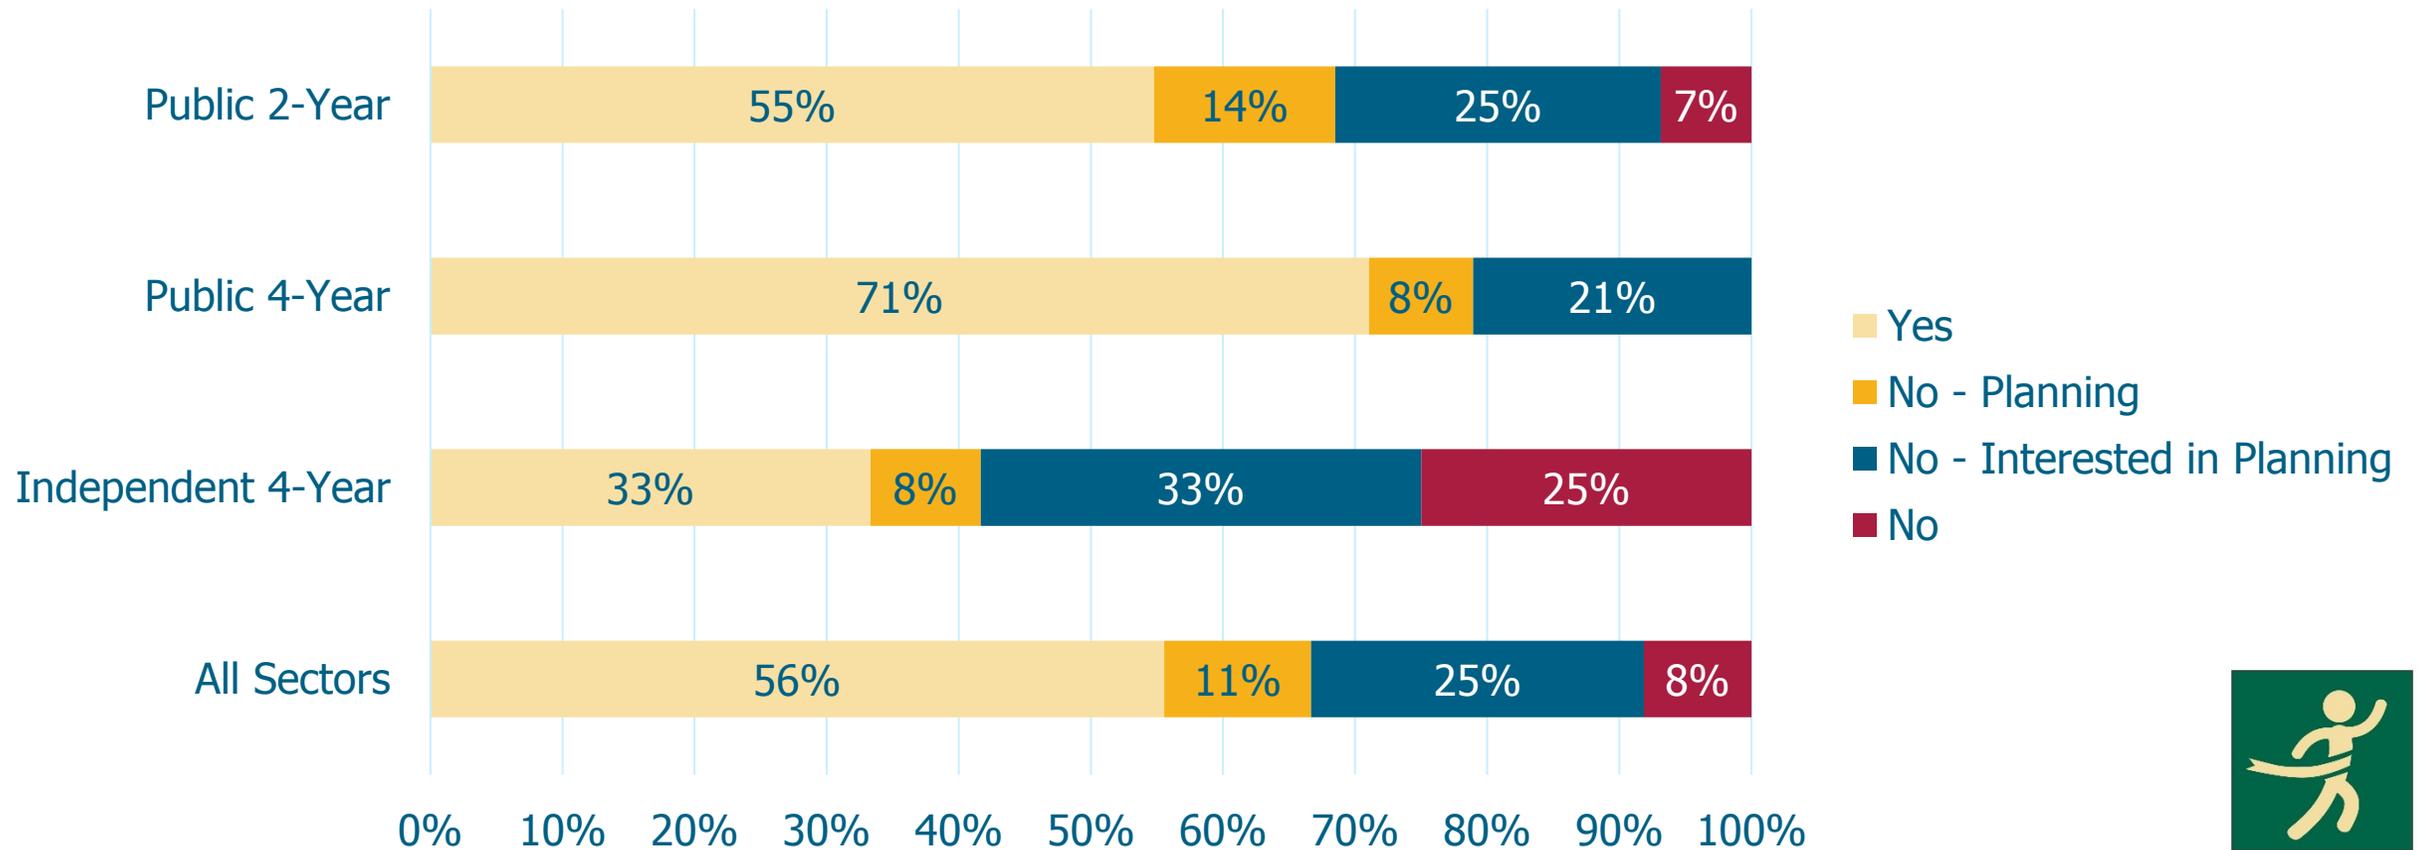

- Monique Lee Whitley joined THECB
- Finalized and deployed Texas instrument (N=135)
- Analysis of survey responses (2017-2018)
- Hurricane Harvey

2018

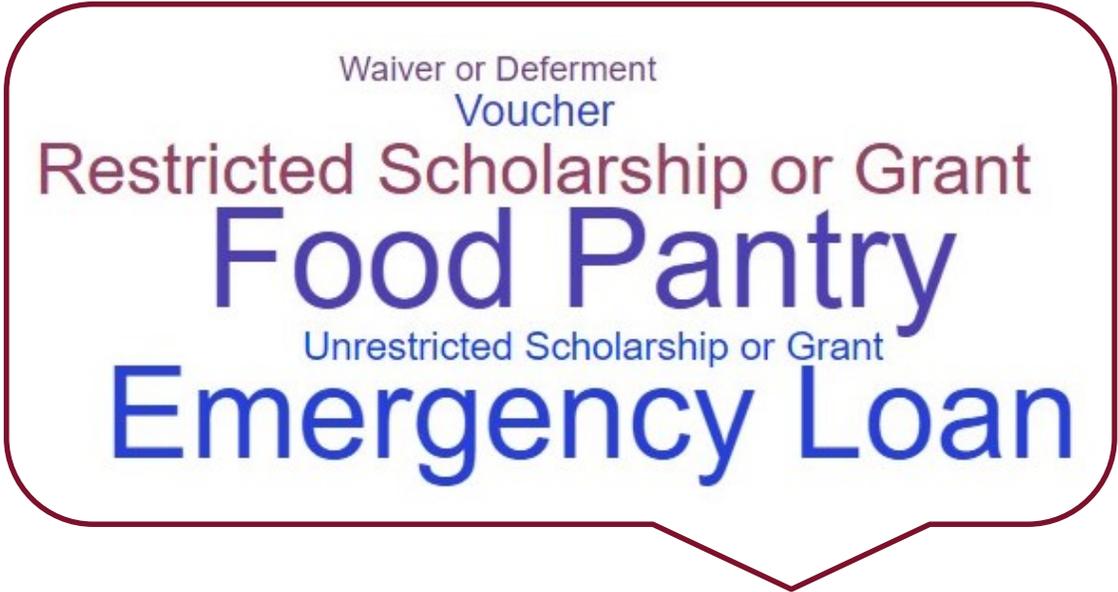

- Final report

Most responding institutions reported having an Emergency Aid (EA) program

Texas EA programs engage campus community

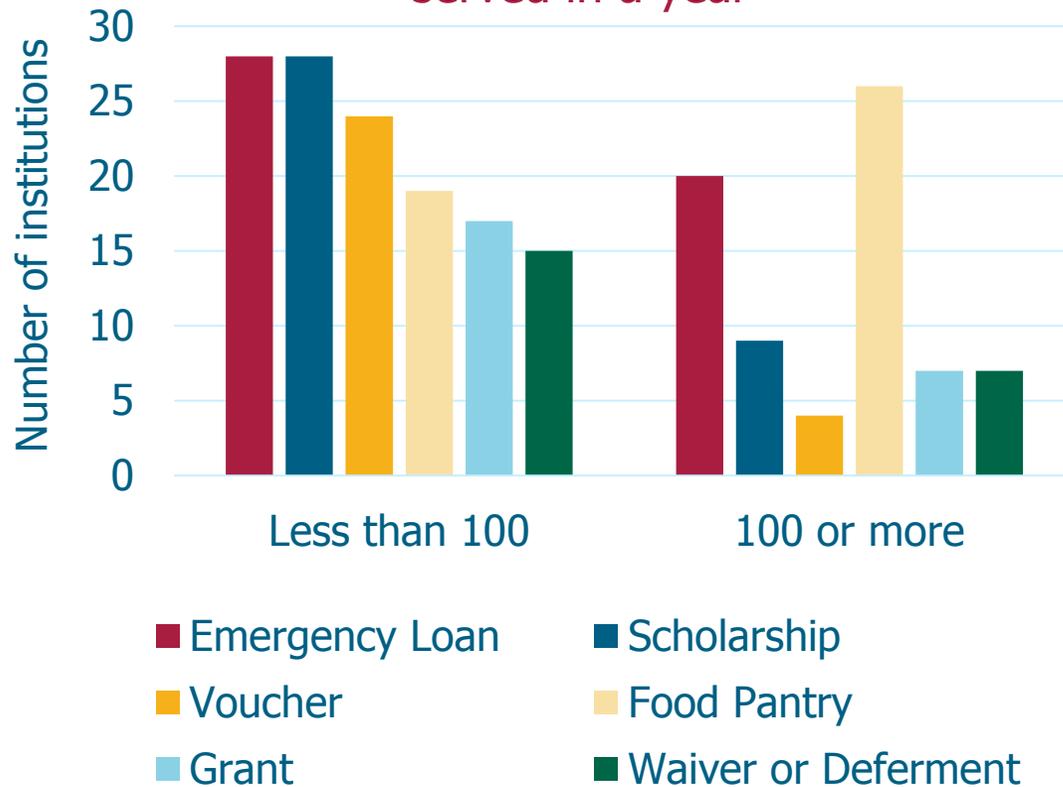

+ Faculty, Staff, Enrollment Services and Admissions

Institutions are doing what they can for students

Approximate number of students served in a year

Percent of institutions providing aid amounts, across all types of EA

19%      32%      26%      23%

Less than $100      $100-$499      $500-$999      $1000-$1500

Is your institution currently assisting all students who request emergency aid?

35%      63%

Yes

No

60×30TX

Texas Higher Education
Coordinating Board

See Chapter 2 in the draft report for detailed data analyses.