Information updated as of November 3, 2023.

Students may check this information for additional information as it is received.

THE ART INSTITUTES CONTACTS

The Art Institutes has provided the following contacts. Due to the closure, students are encouraged to make necessary contacts as soon as possible.

Financial Aid Records are retained at Campus Ivy, 7771 W Oakland Park Blvd Suite 108, Sunrise, FL 33351.

Students can continue to contact their respective campus with questions and/or requests through the end of 2023 as The Art Institutes will have limited academic and student financial aid staff available to assist students affected by the closure. Please feel free to reach out to the campus presidents for any additional updates that may be needed:

- LaToya Williams, lrwilliams@aii.edu
- Leslie Baughman, lbaughman@aii.edu

Additional staff if needed:

- Melanie Lindenmeyer, mlindenmeyer@aii.edu
- Denis Yevstifeyev, dyevstifeyev@aii.edu
- Claude Brown, clbrown@aii.edu

OWNERSHIP FOR THE ART INSTITUTES AT TIME OF CLOSURE:

OWNER:

- Education Principle Foundation, 57 W 57th St., 4th Floor, New York, NY 10019

ACCREDITATION

At the time of closure, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) (www.sacscoc.org) accredited The Art Institute of Houston and the Miami International University of Art & Design, along with the branch campuses. For more information on accreditation, please contact the institutional accreditor.

RECORDS

CATALOGS

The 2022-2023 Art Institute student catalog addendum which were in effect at the time of closure are available upon request by contacting the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board at studentrecords@highered.texas.gov.

- The Houston catalog covers the Austin and San Antonio branch campuses.
- The Miami International University of Art & Design covers the Dallas branch campus.

Students are encouraged to retain a copy of the student catalog applicable to their programs for future reference. Other institutions often request additional information on courses taken or degree plans. Having the catalog as reference may assist students in transferring credits.

TRANSCRIPTS

The Art Institutes closed school page provides the following information:

To ensure that all current students including those on approved leaves of absences receive the necessary academic records required for possible transfer of credit to other institutions, The Art Institutes will mail each current student five official copies of their transcripts, at no cost to the student on or after October 1, 2023. Students who do not have current mailing addresses on file may experience a delay in receipt of the transcripts or may not receive their transcripts during this one and only mailing. [Please note: THECB is not part of this transcript mailing and can't answer questions on the status of a current student's transcript promised through this process.]

The National Student Clearinghouse provides 24/7 online transcript ordering. There is a fee (varies) for each transcript request. This is the only means to obtain a transcript for a closed Art Institute campus. Click here to request your transcript.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) is in the process of obtaining copies of transcripts. This process may take several weeks to complete. Once the transcripts have been processed, a student can request a copy of his/her transcript on file with THECB by completing a transcript request form on the Student Academic Record or Transcript Requests web page.

DIPLOMAS

The Art Institutes closed school page provides the following information:

Replacement Diplomas are available through the Registrar. This is the only means by which to obtain a diploma. Please email aiiregistrar@aii.edu to request a copy.

POSSIBLE TRANSFER PROGRAMS

THECB can't advise individual students on their best option for continuing education. Students are encouraged to research the best option for their situation. Students might consider accreditation, location, comparability between The Art Institute program and the transferring-in program, any preference for type of institution, and any financial or credit accommodations which an individual institution can provide.

THE ART INSTITUTES:

TEXAS INSTITUTIONS:

The Art Institute students can search THECB's degree program search for similar programs at public and private postsecondary institutions. Students can also search TWC's Licensed Career Schools and Colleges Directory for similar course areas of study.

Some Texas institutions may develop transfer options for The Art Institutes students. For specific informational pages, please see:

- Houston Community College
- Lone Star College
- KD Conservatory
- Brazosport College
- University of Houston-Downtown
- Dallas College

The Art Institutes has stated, "For any THECB licensed school that shows interest in providing The Art Institute students with transfer credit evaluations and assistance with accelerated acceptance and enrollment, we can support their outreach by emailing pertinent information to the students directly. In addition, if the schools are willing to hold an event, such as an Open House or Transfer Event, we could provide that information to students."

OTHER ASSOCIATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS - PRIMARILY OUT-OF-STATE OR ONLINE:

The Association of Independent Colleges of Art & Design (AICAD) provided the following background and transfer possibilities with several of its member institutions:

"We [AICAD] are a non-profit consortium of leading arts and design institutions across the US and Canada. While the Art Institute was not a member of our consortium, we wanted to assist impacted students who may be looking for an appropriate institution at which to continue and complete their studies. Many of our member institutions have dedicated transfer admissions counselors at the ready to assist impacted students".

Following is an AICAD-provided list of schools which it identified as prepared to assist with specific transfer admissions contacts and any additional assistance they are prepared to provide:

QUALIFYING EVENT FOR DEGREE STUDENTS TUITION RECOVERY

The Art Institutes were required to maintain a surety instrument sufficient to allow fulfillment of its educational obligations of the current term to its enrolled students if the institution violated any minimum standard which resulted in loss of prepaid tuition or fees or was unable to continue to provide instruction to its enrolled students. THECB has determined that the September 30, 2023 closure was a Qualifying Event in which a student or enrollee of the school or his/her parent or guardian may be determined to have suffered loss of tuition or fees.

The following programs were offered at the time of closure under a Certificate of Authorization issued by THECB. Degree students may qualify for tuition and fee reimbursement. An application claim form and additional information is available HERE. Claims must be initiated with a completed application claim form within 12 months of a Qualifying Event.
