RE: FY 2022 (2021-22) State Financial Aid Program Resource Updates

Below are the fiscal year (FY) 2022 (2021-22) program resources that are now available or have been updated to assist institutions with the administration of state financial aid programs:

Education Aide Exemption

The following FY 2022 resources are available for the Educational Aide Exemption (EAE) program and are posted on the Student Financial Aid Programs \(SFAP\) and College for All Texans program pages:

- EAE Application
- EAE Frequently Asked Questions
- EAE Participating Institutions Listing
- EAE Funds Request Form

Bilingual Education Program

The following FY 2022 resources are now available for the Bilingual Education Program and are posted on the Student Financial Aid Programs (SFAP) webpage under Program Resources:

- Bilingual Education Program Guidelines
- Bilingual Education Funds Request Form

TEG Program Guidelines (Revised)

The following FY 2022 TEG Program Guidelines have been updated to include the tuition differential amounts that are used to determine eligibility for awarding purposes. Please replace any prior copies of the FY 2022 guidelines to ensure the current version is used for reference.

- TEG Program Guidelines \(Revised\)

Comprehensive Program Guidelines

Each year, the individual state financial aid program guidelines are compiled into a single version to allow institutions access to a consolidated resource document. All of the resources provided in this memo are incorporated into this comprehensive version and can be found on the SFAP webpage under Program Resources.
