

Map Your Future in NURSING

Find your program of interest and follow the arrows to chart your course. Yellow stars mark the stackable credentials you can earn along the way. Jump to the chart for further details about your program journey.

Stackable credentials offer a flexible path for your career journey.

VOCATIONAL NURSING (VN) PROGRAM

Vocational Nursing Option 1
Level 2 Certificate ★
Leads to LVN License ★

PREREQUISITES

- High School Diploma/GED
- No Additional Prerequisites

Vocational Nursing Option 2
AAS Degree in Vocational Nursing ★
Leads to LVN License ★

PREREQUISITES

- High School Diploma/GED
- No Additional Prerequisites

ASSOCIATE DEGREE IN NURSING PROGRAM

ADN Traditional Track
Associate Degree in Professional Nursing ★

PREREQUISITES

- High School Diploma/GED
- Prerequisite Courses

ADN Traditional Track - Alternate Entry
Associate Degree in Professional Nursing ★
Leads to RN License ★

PREREQUISITES

- ACC VN Program Completed within Past 14 Months
 - Prerequisite Courses
- Listed on reverse side

ADN Mobility Track
Associate Degree in Professional Nursing ★
Leads to RN License ★

PREREQUISITES

- U.S. License or Board Certification*
 - Prerequisite Courses
- Specific licenses and certifications listed on reverse

RN-TO-BSN PROGRAM

RN-TO-BSN*
Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing ★
Hybrid and Online Options Available*

PREREQUISITES

- ADN Program Completed
- RN License
- Prerequisite Courses

Licensed Vocational Nurse Careers
$50,588/Year • Median Salary*

Registered Nurse Careers
$77,802/Year • Median Salary*

BSN Careers
$82,300 /Year • Median Salary*

*Nursing salaries vary greatly due to many factors such as nursing specialization, type of employment facility, geographic location, and demand.

NURSING PROGRAM TRACKS

Vocational Nursing (VN) Program

Level 2 Certificate ★ or Associate Degree in Vocational Nursing ★
Leads to LVN License ★

VN Option 1 - Certificate

3 Semesters, Full Time — — —

5 Semesters, Part Time — — — — —

VN Option 2 - Associate Degree

5 Semesters, Full Time — — — — —

Become a licensed nurse who is ready to work on day one through ACC's nationally recognized vocational nursing program.

Learn essential patient-care skills and gain clinical experience that will prepare you for an entry-level nursing position as an LVN (Licensed Vocational Nurse) in 12 months. With flexible pathways to either a Level 2 Certificate or Associate Degree, you'll earn stackable credentials that meet you where you are and outline a path to continued career success.

PREREQUISITES

- High School Diploma/GED
- No Additional Prerequisites

Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) Program

Associate Degree in Professional Nursing ★
Leads to RN License ★

ADN Traditional Track

4 Semesters, Full Time — — — —

ADN Traditional Track - Alternate Entry

3 Semesters, Full Time — — —

ADN Mobility Track

3 Semesters, Full Time — — —

With multiple tracks to becoming a Registered Nurse, the professional nursing program at ACC prepares students for healthcare's most versatile, high-demand careers. Gain the clinical skills to work confidently as an RN, leading to an Associate Degree in Professional Nursing. Start with Pre-Health Sciences for your prerequisites or jump directly from the Vocational Nursing Program track by using stackable credentials to skill up during your career journey.

PREREQUISITES - TRADITIONAL TRACK

- High School Diploma/GED
- Completion of the Following Courses:
Anatomy & Physiology I, Anatomy & Physiology II, Microbiology, Pharmacology

PREREQUISITES - TRAD. TRACK - ALT ENTRY

- ACC VN Program Completed: Applicant must begin ADN program within 14 months of graduating from the ACC Vocational Nursing program
- Completion of the Following Courses:
Anatomy & Physiology I, Anatomy & Physiology II, Microbiology, Pharmacology, Intro to Psychology, Human Growth & Development, Ethics, Speech

PREREQUISITES - MOBILITY TRACK

- U.S. License or board certification* in:
Vocational Nursing, Paramedic, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapist Assistant, Radiology, Sonography, Surgical Technology, Medical Laboratory Technology, Dental Hygiene or Respiratory Therapy
 - Completion of the Following Courses:
Anatomy & Physiology I, Anatomy & Physiology II, Microbiology, Pharmacology, Intro to Psychology, Human Growth & Development, Ethics, Speech
- *License or certification must be maintained in good standing throughout duration of the program

ACC Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) students and faculty attend a Level 2, IV Therapy Lab inside one of the new state of the art Simulation Labs at the Highland Campus. This is the first cohort to access the new labs.

RN-to-BSN Program

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree ★

RN-to-BSN

3 Semesters, Full Time — — —

5 Semesters, Part Time — — — — —

Hybrid and Online Options Available

Take your knowledge and credentials to the next level with ACC's RN-BSN program, providing a flexible track, hybrid or online options, to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN). As an RN with an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN), you can expand your career options and advance in your field in as little as 12 months. This program is an excellent and affordable way to increase your employability across the healthcare industry and set yourself up to earn a master's degree or doctorate.

PREREQUISITES

- ADN Program Completed
- RN License
- Completion of the Following Courses:
Anatomy & Physiology I, Anatomy & Physiology II, Microbiology, Pharmacology, Intro to Psychology, Human Growth & Development, Ethics, Speech, English Composition I, English Composition II, Elementary Statistics, Creative Arts, History I, History II, US Government, Texas State and Local Government, Component Area Option

PROGRAM CONTACT INFORMATION

VN Program: lvn@austincc.edu | ADN/Mobility Program: adn@austincc.edu

RN-to-BSN Program: rntobsn@austincc.edu PH: 512-223-5700 | TOLL FREE: 888-626-1697 | START HERE. GET THERE.

austincc.edu/nursing